VIEWS OF PHILANTHROPISTS ABOUT JSS

It is very much true to say- whatever we give, comes back to us manifold and when we do good to others, particularly the poor and needy ones, we receive heavenly blessings.

- Charlie Daswani, Hong Kong

Ever since I have been a part of JSS, my way of life has improved considerably. Paramhans Hirdaram Sahib's guidance and emphasis on SEWA towards the elderly, poor and children has a real meaning in life. With his simplicity in living and greatness in achieving changes among the less fortunate has improved the society. JSS has done a remarkable work and many other organizations must take example from their disciplined commitment for SEWA.

- Ghanshyam Bhagwani, Las Palmas

Probably, I was 18 when my father took me to Bairagarh, Bhopal saying that I need to see a Saint, with whom my family has been associated from the days of my grandfather. But as a teenager, I could not realize any purpose of visit, except to accompany my father. Meantime, in the year 1972, I got employment in Japan and, since then, decided to be involved with various activities of Jeev Sewa Sansthan, the institution initiated by this holy Saint. Having reached to this age, I have some kind of inner peace and satisfaction that because of his blessings, I was able to find the path of helping poor and needy people from the very young age of my life.

Today, I would have been regretting for the last opportunity of not knowing this path if I would not have come across this Holy Saint, Paramhans Hirdaram Sahib.

- Mamtani Manga, Japan

I bow down with utmost reverence at the lotus feet of Paramhans Sant Hirdaram Sahib, a legendary Saint. Although he is not physically among us, but believe me, his presence is felt everywhere – even in Hong Kong where I reside. In fact, he is in the hearts of all of us. Whosoever has firm belief in his philosophy of 'Sewa and Sumiran' and leads his life accordingly, can feel his presence. I am thankful to Santji for showing me the way to fulfill the dream of my beloved mother (Mrs. Navnidh) i.e. 'Vidya Daan and jeevan Daan', through Jeev Sewa Sansthan and other organizations.

The more I contribute the more eternal bliss I feel in my life. I call upon everyone to come forward and be a part of this Service Campaign and find true worth of one's birth as human being.

- K.H. Lakhani, Hong Kong

Visiting Sant Nagari, viewing various benevolent activities and having Darshana of H. H Santji, is like pilgrimage for me. His Simplicity and similarity in words & deeds motivated me to get involved in some of the many service projects of JSS. I pray to the Almighty to give me more strength to serve more needy people.

- Mohan Lalwani, Hong Kong

Government has rightly changed the name of a suburb of Bhopal, from Bairagarh to Sant Hirdaram Nagar. This change has taken place due to a good number of benevolent activities being undertaken with the inspiration, blessings and motivation of a saintly soul, down-to-earth human being, simple-living-high-thinking personality, whom we all know as "Sant Hirdaram Sahib". There are lot many service activities aiming to serve the old, the inform and the children in Sant Nagari, Bhopal and in fact, this is the reason that the volunteers and the donators all over the world have always been on increase.

Let us salute this divine figure by extending helping hand with generosity and graciousness towards the noble deeds he (and , after him, Rev. Siddh Bhauji and his team of volunteers) has been doing only for others.

- N.N. Lalchandani, Sacramento, USA

My humble Pranams in lotus feet of H. H. Puj Swami Hirdaram Sahib. I see my Satguru SWAMI TEUNRAM in him. All Saints tell us, "In order to receive happiness, we have to make others happy." To serve all mankind wholeheartedly is key to eternal happiness. We must keep giving and sharing with others whatever we may have, till our last breath.

- Harry Wadhvani, Los Angeles, USA

VIEWS OF PHILANTHROPISTS ABOUT JSS

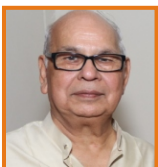

I had visited Bhopal couple of times and was amazed to see the efforts of volunteers, who are serving the suffering humanity selflessly and tirelessly. We brothers (myself, H.G. & V.G.) set up one school- "MITHI GOBINDRAM PUBLIC SCHOOL"- in the memory of our parents. The education given & human values inculcated in the children are beyond description. 100% result, with outstanding performance of the children. This school is one of the Top Most schools of that area. We feel happy & proud to have taken right decision of setting up of the school which is being run successfully with the blessings of Paramhans Santji and Rev. Siddh Bhauji.

- V. G. Melwani, Hong Kong

The need for help is everywhere. It is just looked at with a conscious mind and charitable heart in tune with selfless giving. This has been the example set by Paramhans Santji who dedicated his entire life to the welfare of others. My deep respects for Rev. Siddh Bhauji who, with his illumination and leadership, has been able to undertake this immense task and keep it alive and going with the untiring efforts of Jeev Sewa Sansthan and his volunteers.

- Vinod Shivlani, Argentina

Though all round development of the society- Education, Health and Hygiene for all, Employment for self reliance and Sanskar is today's need but, to me, making everyone self-reliant and developing confidence in them is the real Sewa. If we complete this Sewa successfully we will be blessed not only by the person but also his whole family.

And, I found my this thought being materialized in letter and spirit at Sant Hirdaram Nagar through Jeev Sewa Sansthan.

- J.M. Maheshwari
Jai Shivshakti Health &
Educational Foundation, Bangaluru

Sant Nagri (Bhopal) has proved the reality of how a little act of kindness can change the world. Myself and my wife, Samara are fortunate enough to have this opportunity to help improve the lives of others by supporting the education of the less fortunate. It is our cherished desire that we inspire more people of younger generation to volunteer and help others as their social responsibility.

- Samara & Ritesh Punjabi, Dubai

For my wife Vindu and myself our visit to Sant Nagri had been very heartening. Surely, it was a blessed day that we were able to pay our homage at sacred Samadhi of one of the truly great saints of the century "Sant Hirdaram Sahib" and witness the level of transformation he has been able to bring about in the society. Our deep respect and prostrations go to beloved Siddh Bhauji, who now is the noblest torch bearer of his Guru's mission.

Our visit to him has been cherished as a golden memory in our hearts for life time. Our only prayer is that may we be granted the privilege of becoming a tiny part of this great mission of ending human sufferings on all fronts.

- K.P. Daswani, Hong Kong

I and all my family members have been associated with the "Shewa Karyas" of Jeev Sewa Sansthan for more than two decades. I am pleasantly surprised to see the "Nishkam Sewa" that the volunteers of Jeev Sewa Sansthan are doing for the downtrodden section. We are only able to help them in performing the Sewa. In fact, they are the real heroes of the society.

I pray at the lotus feet of Paramhans Santji to further enable me to serve the less-privileged masses with more vigour, zeal & enthusiasm.

- P.K. Ramani, Hong Kong

VIEWS OF PHILANTHROPISTS ABOUT JSS

Those who always think for welfare of others and sooth their sufferings, the Almighty always redresses all their griefs, making their lives sublime and radiant. I admire & respect the selfless service rendered by the volunteers of Jeev Sewa Sansthan & its sister organizations dedicated for welfare of poor brethren & upliflment of the less-privileged sections of the society. I truly feel happy to be associated with JSS.

- Prakash Sujanani, Hong Kong

Lord Sri Krishna explains in Shrimad Bhagavad Geeta that the Karma (work) performed for the sake of sacrifice i.e. without attachment for the fruit of the action, will not bind the doer. Therefore, one should do the work without any expectation of gratitude, reward or acknowledgment. In recent times, the living example of such selflessness is Paramhans Sant Hirdaram Sahib who lived a simple life and aspired that the poor & needy should be looked after as God's favoured children.

And, this pious desire of the holy saint is being materialized by Jeev Sewa Sansthan through a team of volunteers in true sense.

- Gope Nandwani, London

We all pursue happiness. But the simplest way to achieve happiness is by making others happy by helping them. Educating poor children is like giving eyesight to the blind. I humbly request to one and all to extend a helping hand for education related activities of Jeev Sewa Sansthan so that, in time to come, all poor children are able to get free education.

- T. K. Thadani, Lagos

I am truly amazed with pleasure at the selfless service that the volunteers of Jeev Sewa Sansthan are rendering to the underprivileged masses struggling to make their both ends meet. For these volunteers, Pujya Santji's words, "Manav Sewa is Madhav Sewa" is not a mere slogan but the guiding principle of their lives.

- Murli Melwani, Dallas, USA

On my couple of visits to Bhopal I witnessed the benevolent activities of Jeev Sewa Sansthan and immediately remembered my Gurudev H.H. Pujya Ganmgeshwaranandaji Maharaj who used to say, "uplifting the downtrodden is the greatest service to mankind".

Under the able guidance of Pujya Siddh Bhauji, the selfless volunteers of JSS work tirelessly and passionately to provide relief and comfort to the underprivileged.

- Nari Pohani, New York, USA

Working with the volunteers of Jeev Sewa Sansthan and Sewa Sadan Eye Hospital has been a pleasant experience for me. They have shown me the true spirit of giving without expecting anything in return. The gratitude in the eyes of the patients after urology camps is a reward that one can cherish for a long time.

- Dr. Gopal H. Badlani, NC, USA

It was an honour for me to visit Jeev Sewa Sansthan in Sant Hirdaram Nagar. What a beautiful Oasis of human service! I was impressed by the wide range of services that are being rendered here and the countless lives that are being benefitted forever.

They are actually practising what our scriptures teach us, "Serving Humanity is like worshipping the Lord".

- Dr. Dina Pahlajani, Co-founder & Board Member, Children's Hope India, New York, USA

VIEWS OF PHILANTHROPISTS ABOUT JSS

Myself and my wife Nanna visited Sant Nagri for the first time in 2002. This visit was like a spiritual awakening for both of us. For the first time, we met a saint who lived ahead of his times, a saint who believed in serving the creations of the Almighty by educating them, making them employable and providing them medical facilities. In this materialistic world where all live for themselves and are busy making themselves comfortable, here was a simple holy saint with no desires but to see happiness and contentment in the eyes of the underprivileged. He never believed in building temples but he built on unimaginably enormous place in the hearts of the needy and deprived people.

With his foresight, he left behind a caravan of dedicated volunteers to carry forward the legacy of service and fulfill his dreams. All this made our association permanent with Jeev Sewa Sansthan.

- Dr. Nanna & Dr. Shiban Warikoo, PA, USA

All our family members are the followers of Paramhans Santji since childhood. We all have experienced that by following the service path shown by the legendary Saint, we have found our true worth on this planet. The magnitude, quality and impact of the service activities is clearly visible in Sant Nagri in the fields of education, health and various other areas. Rev. Siddh Bhauji has not only been guiding and inspiring hundreds of volunteers but also has been ensuring smooth running of all the activities.

- Lavina Suresh Raisinghani, St. Maarten

Satnam Sakhi,
How to put in words the opportunities that have come our way since having associated with His Holiness Sant Hirdaram Sahibji! Words can't express as to how much fortunate we feel to be a tiny part of Sant Hirdaramji's dream! We pray Lord to make JSS to be able to live upto dream of Santji, to serve humanity as a team, to give love to those who need it the most, through deeds of kindness as our beloved has taught, to help the ones closest to His heart.

- Roma Chandiramani, Hong Kong

Helping hand is far holier than praying lips. Helping the poor, the weak, the old, the hungry, the sick is helping oneself. For we, thank you Santji for lighting this lamp of wisdom in our lives. Thank you for allowing us to worship you as our Guru. I feel fortunate for being daughter-in-law of Dada K.H. Lakhani, who taught me first lesson of "Sewa" and is doing great service to the poor community through Jeev Sewa Sansthan and many other organizations working in different parts of India.

- Sapna Lakhani, Hong Kong

"By giving, actually we receive!

Directly we receive, the blessings; to whom we give! But indirectly, we receive the grace! With that grace we receive far greater than what we gave!!

The Almighty is considering us worthy of receiving His grace and keeps sending us more and more of His grace but the point is we should not slow our pace or forget giving. So let us give and keep giving."

We are grateful to God that He has blessed us by sending their sons in the form of Sadhu T.L. Vaswani, Paramhans Sant Hirdaram and Pujya Dada J.P. Vaswani to guide us, to love us, to bless us.

- Bhagwan Shivilani, Dubai

All of us are really fortunate enough to have the blessings of H.H. Santji & Rev. Siddh Bhauji. It is our duty to fulfill their noble wishes, which are ultimately meant for our own welfare. Blessings & compliments to all the volunteers of Jeev Sewa Sansthan working tirelessly & selflessly for noble cause.

-Chellaram Kripalani, Singapore

Still there are many more poor children deprived of education, still there are numerous poor eye-patients needing operations, still there are many poor patients needing medical help, still there is a good number of poor girls worried about marriage due to dowry, and there are many more other sufferers. The dreaded enemy of all of them is POVERTY.

You can help them fight against this DEMON and, thus, uplift the society by contributing as under:
